Student Affairs

• Students should understand that they may experience:
  • Different opinions/viewpoints
  • Uncomfortable conversations

• Our goal is to teach students that:
  • Pitt is a marketplace of ideas
  • By engaging in dialogue, they are enhancing their learning
  • We must all reaffirm a commitment to mutual respect, civility, self-restraint, and concern for others

• Respectful exchange of ideas applies to both in- and out-of-class learning.
Faculty play an enormous role in helping students feel they belong:

- Engage students with research
- Validate them being here as a student
